FUNDS FOR FLOOD SURVIVORS MORE THAN $1.3 MILLION AND GROWING

CLINTON, Miss. – Federal assistance approved for people in 14 Mississippi counties that were declared a major disaster area by the president following the historic flooding of the Mississippi River and its tributaries now totals $1,373,224 and is expected to grow rapidly as flood waters recede.

While many recovery efforts along the Mississippi River are held back by the heavy flooding, state and federal disaster officials are primed and ready to speed work as water levels continue to go down.

Several forms of federal assistance may be available, but people must first register with FEMA. That can be done by calling 800-621-FEMA (3362) or TTY 800-462-7585 for people with speech or hearing impairment. Telephone registration is available between 7 a.m. and 10 p.m. daily.

Application can also be made on FEMA's website, www.DisasterAssistance.gov at any time. A person can also track the status of an application on that site. Another way to register is by web-enabled cell phone at m.fema.gov.

Here is a summary through Wednesday, June 1, of all federal assistance to individuals in counties affected by the flooding that began May 3, and continues.

- $1,373,224 in total housing and personal needs has been approved.
- Of that amount, $1,336,124 has been approved for housing expenses, including temporary rental assistance, home repair costs and assistance toward replacing destroyed homes.
- $37,099 has been approved as "Other Needs Assistance" to cover essential disaster-related needs, such as medical and dental expenses and lost personal possessions.
- 1,398 Low-interest loan applications have been issued to homeowners, renters and business owners by the U.S. Small Business Administration.
- 3,228 applicants have registered with FEMA for some form of disaster assistance.
- 978 visits have been made at Disaster Recovery Centers operated jointly by FEMA and the state of Mississippi.
- 1,668 home inspections to confirm disaster damage have been completed.
- Teams of state and FEMA Community Relations field specialists have distributed more than 22,403 flyers and worked in the affected counties to help identify and assist disaster survivors. In the course of explaining the recovery process, the teams have visited:

FEMA's mission is to support our citizens and first responders to ensure that as a nation we work together to build, sustain, and improve our capability to prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate all hazards.

Disaster recovery assistance is available without regard to race, color, religion, nationality, sex, age, disability, English proficiency or economic status. If you or someone you know has been discriminated against, call FEMA toll-free at 800-621-FEMA (3362). For TTY call 800-462-7585.

FEMA's temporary housing assistance and grants for public transportation expenses, medical and dental expenses, and funeral and burial expenses do not require individuals to apply for an SBA loan. However, applicants who receive SBA loan applications must submit them to SBA loan officers to be eligible for assistance that covers personal property, vehicle repair or replacement, and moving and storage expenses.
